Third Issue of Journal of Applied Language and Culture Studies (JALCS)

Invitation for Submissions

Upon the publication of the First and Second Issues of Journal of Applied and Culture Studies (JALCS) and following the aims and scope of the journal, we invite submissions of manuscripts with a view to publishing high-quality, original and state-of-the-art articles that may be theoretical or empirical in orientation and that advance our understanding of issues related to language, culture and translation. This third issue will appear both in print and as an open access publication at https://revues.imist.ma/index.php?journal=JALCS

All submissions should be unpublished and not under review currently by any other journal. They should report on original research or present an original conceptual framework that links previous research, theory, and practices. Articles should have a clear focus and be written so that they are accessible to a broad audience of scholars, researchers and students who are interested in issues related to the interplay between language, culture and translation. Manuscripts should strictly conform to the general submission guidelines of JALCS, which may be consulted at the following Internet address: https://revues.imist.ma/index.php?journal=JALCS

Topics of interest to JALCS include, but are not limited to the following:

A. Applied Language Studies
   - Core Linguistics (Phonetics, Phonology, Syntax, Semantics, Pragmatics, etc.)
   - Applied Linguistics (Sociolinguistics, Psycholinguistics, Discourse Analysis, ELT, Literacy and Adult Education, etc.)

B. Culture Studies
   - Literary and Postcolonial Studies
   - Cross-Cultural Studies
   - Gender Studies
   - Cultural Translation (Ethnography)
   - Media Studies

C. Translation Studies
   - Specialized Translation
   - Terminology and Lexicography
